Dear MIT2021C01089,

Greetings from MIT School of Distance Education

We appreciate your patience and are glad to inform you that your result has been published for the February 24 Examination cycle.

You can log into the e-library to view your progress report.

For further assistance, you can create a ticket in our automated Ticketing Management System through E-Library.

Thank you for your patience & cooperation.

Note: If your marks are not updated for given exams then please create a ticket and ensure that you have submitted the internal assessment for the particular subject.

Course-completed students will get a mark sheet and certificate within 45 days. Our certification team will notify you of the necessary information very soon.

Regards,

Examination Department.
